

Fortune 500 Automobile Company seeks Answers to lawsuits

Challenge

A Fortune 500 automobile company was subject to breach of warranty litigation throughout the United States. At the time, the company engaged outside counsel in each of the States where it was being sued on warranty claims. While the vast majority of these lawsuits were dismissed or settled short of trial, the company nevertheless needed an efficient and cost-effective way to prepare answers to the lawsuits.

Solution

LegalEase Solutions devised a process whereby all breach of warranty lawsuits nationwide were sent to LegalEase's expert team of attorneys. The team proceeded to draft Answers to the lawsuits and forwarded them to local counsel for review and filing on a low flat fee model and within 48 hours of receipt.

Results

The company

- Dealt with the critical lawsuits in a timely fashion with well-prepared Answers.
- Drove down costs of employing outside counsel for drafting Answers to lawsuits.
- Discovered a sustainable model to defend itself against lawsuits.

"LegalEase drafted Answers to the lawsuits and forwarded them to local counsel for review and filing on a low flat fee model and within 48 hours of receipt."

7000
LAWSUITS
TACKLED

2 DAYS
TURNAROUND TIME

COST SAVINGS
OF OVER
2 MILLION