

Fortune 500 Automobile Company achieves 75% cost savings on Regulatory Mapping

Challenge

A Fortune 500 Automobile Company's regular reliance on outside counsel for 50-State research relating to the release of new products, incentives, marketing, and sales, was contributing to a large chunk of their legal spend. The company needed an alternative to conduct quick and cost effective legal research on an ongoing basis, without compromising on consistent quality.

"LegalEase's award-winning research and writing team rose to the occasion to provide the company with timely legal research at extremely competitive pricing."
